ALM SIGNS CHARTER CONTRACT

WILLEMSTAD — On July 8 ALM signed a contract with tour operator Thomas Wainwright for a charter program from Baltimore and Philadelphia to Curacao and Aruba.

It is for a contract of 14 months, starting in December this year which states that ALM will fly on weekend directly from Baltimore and Philadelphia to Aruba and Curacao with a capacity of 138 seats on each flight.

According to the itinerary an ALM DC-9 Super 80 will fly between Baltimore and Philadelphia to Aruba one day and the next day from the same two cities to Curacao, enabling the tour operator to sell package tours to both Aruba and Curacao with direct flights to both islands.

Bonaire is also included in the Wainwright package and ALM has provided for a good connection for the tourists who visit Bonaire. Wainwright is a wellknown tour operator throughout the U.S. and ALM has been working satisfactorily with him for some years.

Wainwright said when signing the contract that he does not doubt that after 14 months both parties will be satisfied and interested in working with each other to continue bringing tourists from the United States to these islands.
